VIII Spring Symposium on Tourism Development

June 18th and 19th, 2026,
LANZAROTE ISLAND / SPAIN

Tourism and Residents Well-being

This symposium forms part of the 8th International Spring Symposium on Tourism Development (Lanzarote VIII SSTD 2026), held under the theme “Tourism and Residents’ Well-being”. It aims to provide an international platform for academics, researchers, professionals, and students to exchange knowledge and discuss key issues related to sustainability, competitiveness, and innovation in tourism development and hospitality management.

Organised by the Tides Institute of the University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, this congress reinforces ULPGC’s commitment to academic excellence and the sustainable development of the tourism sector. The university is consistently ranked among the top institutions in Tourism studies in Spain and is recognised as one of the leading universities in Europe in this field.

The event will take place on June 18th and 19th at the Hotel Arrecife Gran Hotel & Spa, on the island of Lanzarote. It will feature distinguished international keynote speakers, including Professor Robert Steiger (University of Innsbruck), Hai Nguyen (University of Greenwich), and Jacques Bulchand (Spain), as well as an industry panel bringing together leading experts from the tourism and hospitality sectors.
